CLARKSVILLE NOTES.

Since Clarksville was first incorporated saloons have been countenanced and thrived. Last Saturday the last day of licensed traffic brought out a large crowd that would have rivalled circus days. Many, with heavy pocketbooks and light hearts saw the day usher in, but noted its passing with lighter pocket-books, heavy hearts and heavier jugs and jags. For some time the city folks, rich and poor, lame and halt, have been laying in a supply for medicinal purposes only. Clarksville is now only dry on the surface, but to make it doubly so, drastic laws, not in conflict with the interstate commerce laws, as interpreted by the Supreme Court of the United States, will be passed.

On last Monday night, under favorable auspices, the commanding officers of the Twentieth Century Lodge, Knights of Pythias, elected at last regular meeting were installed. A large membership was present and tacit instructions were given the delegates to the Grand Lodge to command the said lodge to hold its next annual session at this place.

The Institute for Colored Teachers of Middle Tennessee, which has been in session for the last three weeks, closed Friday afternoon. Several state certificates were presented to several teachers, while a few others were not so fortunate. A "Consolation party" by the Maple Leaf Club was given in honor of the visiting teachers Thursday night.

Mr. Ed. Johnson, of Rochester, N. Y., and Miss Eva Anderson, the salutatorian of this year's graduating class, were quietly married last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cobb came in Tuesday from LaGrange, Ky.

Mr. Jesse Gordon went to Belleville, Ill., Monday.

Mr. Pleasant Scruggs is in Owensboro Ky.

GOODLETTSVILLE NOTES.

Mr. Gillard Finch visited Nashville last Saturday.

Miss Luella Utley, of Nashville, is visiting relatives and friends of this place.

Miss Marie L. Thomas, an employee at the Southern College of Music, Nashville, is spending this week at home.

Mrs. Martha Hendricks visited her daughter, Mrs. Nettie Gee, of Edgefield Junction, last Sunday.

Prof. Bryant, of Nashville, delivered a very helpful address here at the C.
M. E. Church on the evening of June 28.

Mr. Wm. Johnson was indisposed last week.

Master Hobart Cantrell, one of the most energetic boys of our community, takes much pride in the fact that he has started a bank account.

Mrs. Martha Baker has returned from her trip to Kentucky.

Plans are now well on foot for the grand church rally at Baker's Chapel C. M. E. Church on Sunday, July 14.
Dr. Luckett, of Nashville, and other prominent ministers will be present and render service.

Cupid has been moving effectively around here for some time. Consequently Mrs. Emma Joyner, an esteemed widow and patron of the Globe, has given her heart to Mr. Ed.
Vester, an employee on the L. & N.
Railroad; and the wedding takes place on the evening of the 25th inst. at Bakers Chapel C. M. E. Church.

SPRING HILL NOTES.

Mrs. Lucy Sharber is improving.

Mr. R. McKissack is sick.

Mrs. H. Polk, A. McLemore and M. Byers are slightly indisposed.

Miss Allie McLemore has returned home from Nashville where she has been attending school.

Mrs. Sallie Blair and Mrs. Eliza McLemore entertained Dr. A. C. McKissack, of Nashville. Elegant dinners were served and the doctor greatly enjoyed the occasions.

The music rendered by the Wesley choir Sunday under the management of Mrs. T. J. Peters was very pleasant.
Miss Mayme Blair and Mr. A.
Jenkins took the offering Sunday morning and Mr. Peters and Mr. Overton at night.

A new meat market has been opened here near the post office and several new buildings are going up.

Mr. and Mrs. F. McLemore, of Mt.
Zion, have moved back to their home.

Mr. Ned Scruggs reports his business prospering.

Several of our young men were fined this week for offensive misdemeanors.
If our families would show such violators that there is a difference between them and law-abiding boys much good would be done.

Miss Bertina McLemore will spend the summer in Nashville preparatory to entering college in the fall.

Prof. Foster exhibited here Wednesday night. He has a high class of moving pictures.

HOWARD CHURCH.

The Howard Congregational Church is at this time very active. The services are well attended in spite of the fact that members are out of the city taking their vacation. Rev. G. W.
Hemphill, a member of the church, preached last Sunday to an interested audience. He gave a splendid discourse upon "Civic Righteousness."

The men's Club had an enthusiastic social gathering Monday night. Refreshments were served and Rev S. E. Griggs, the guest of the evening, spoke in an informal way of his observations during his northern lecture tour.

The change of the hour of the Sunday school from 9:30 to 12:25 is popular with the members. A large number of the older members remain to the Bible class study conducted by Dr.
Bond.

Church service begins at 11 a. m. as usual, but closes promptly at 12:15, and is therefore only one hour and a quarter long. After the intermission of ten minutes the Sunday school assembles and is in session only one hour, closing at 1:25, thus bringing the entire service of preaching and Sunday school within two hours and fifteen minutes.

The annual picnic will enjoy an outing at Greenwood Park Thursday, July 11. Pleasure wagons will leave the church at 8 o'clock on the morning of the 11th. Every member and all of the friends of the church are invited to go.

Dr. Bond, the pastor, requests the presence at the church of every member on next Sunday morning, July 7, as he has a matter of importance to announce to the church.

EBENEZER NOTES.

Instead of Dr. Hammonds and son dining with Mr. Wm. Lusk, as appeared in the Globe some time ago, Dr.
Hammonds, little son and Mr.
Lusk dined at the Industrial School.

Our Sunday School has new life.
Number enrolled Sunday, June 30, 58. Rev. Smith is very very much elated, over the improvement of the school.

Miss Lizzie Hill is able to sit up.

Mrs. Redmond, who has been quite sick, is up again.

Miss H. Henley is still sick.

Mr. Clarence Rideout, Little Roy Kelling and Mrs. Frank Hudson are on the sick list.

Miss Della Buchanan, an accomplished organist of our town, is indisposed.

DELIGHTFUL OUTING.

Spruce Street Baptist Church and Sunday School went on their annual picnic Monday, to Hermitage by way of N. C. & St. L. Railway. The train containing six cars left College street station between ten and eleven o'clock, and reached home about 6.
The weather was very warm in the city, but at the picnic grounds a refreshing breeze was stirring all day. At 12 o'clock a basket lunch was served, after which both young and old entered into the spirit of the affair, the result being an ideal day of rest of body and mind as well as a day of pleasure.

CUT A MAN'S THROAT.

A few days ago Ralph Walton was engaged in a row with a man whose name could not be learned, when Thomas Davis, it is claimed, with but few words, took a hand in the affray, and cut Walton's throat, making a wound nearly six inches in length.
Davis plead guilty in the City Court Monday on the charge of assault with intent to kill and was bound over to the Criminal Court by Judge Baker.

HALLS HILL NOTES.

Rev. Alice Bishop, of Nashville, spent the night of June 29 with Mrs.
Sanders.

Mrs. Ed. Barton, of Readyville, is the guest of Mrs. Tom Rhodes.

Mason Sanders, wife and little daughter, Beatrice, and Mrs. Laura McAdoo attended the burial of Mr.
Jesse Sanders at Porterfield on Friday.

A large crowd from this place attended a basket dinner at the C. P.
Church Sunday.
